CHRISTMAS 1996

TO MY THREE DEAREST DAUGHTERS:

As the years are getting a wee bit heavy, I thought it best to put what I had on the HILL family into a book so that each of you could have an idea from where you came. Most of this is my research but when you get up into New England, they kept such excellent records plus the families kept written records of their families...it has sometimes been a matter of merely copying from a Bible or well recognized family history.

You may remember that I've said many times that when your Father and I got married and I lived in Georgia and heard the talk among his family, it dawned on me that I knew next to nothing about my HILL and FLANAGAN families. As you chillun came along I vowed that I just had to know something about my family to pass onto you girls along with your father's memories of his. It was pure luck that I happened upon a query where this man named Edwin HILL said that if you would send in what you knew about your family, as far back as you could...he would try to match up this information with the HILL information that he had been collecting for years. I have a feeling that he was a semi-invalid. You will find his letters, handwritten, small, with the paper cut off when he was through with the letter. As a result you might receive a 'letter' that was 2" long or 6"!! He was the one who gave me the bare bones of my ancestors back to a little 10 yr old boy named Nicholas HILL who was a drummer boy in the Revolutionary War. With his information I started with some concrete records.

By placing many queries in genealogical publications, and as I learned more about how to do this type of research, I came upon a 'cousin' who had a copy of a Hill record book that had been compiled by this little Revolutionary drummer boy (Nicholas) copied by his last child, named John Lindsey Hill. This cousin in Illinois happened to be in Houston on a visit and came by the Library where I had just started working part-time and let me have the book overnight. It took each of Nicholas Hill's 15 or 16 children by his many wives, and listed chronologically the children he had by each wife...giving birth and deaths and marriage dates. I have placed a copy of this "Memoranda of the Genealogy and Descendants of Rev. Nicholas Hill, late of Florida, Montgomery Co., New York" in the Salt Lake City Library in Utah, Clayton Library and I believe in the Little Rock, AR City Library. This,as you can imagine was quite a find. It also lent credence to dear Mr. Edwin Hill's records that he sent to me. Also to the suppositions that I had made from looking at 2 or 3 little books that my cousin Erma Eagle, had obtained from her mother, Lottie Hill Tucker, my Dad's oldest sister. I vaguely remember my Aunt Lot, a very vain, proud woman, who, I've learned thought that my father, her little brother had marriad beneath him by marrying anyone that was Irish. Maybe that was why our branch of the Hill family never received a copy of this Hill Memoranda. I will have to make copies and send it to each of you.

From Cousin Erma Tucker Eagle, her stories of the family and by looking at her Mothers' little books, I really rounded out the known facts on the Hill lineage. This visit to Erma in Little Rock was in July 1965. It has always amazed me that the Tucker children who were raised with 'our' grandmother Hill in the household, didn't know anymore about her than they did. But, since my Father didn't talk about his family guess the Hills just didn't think it was of any importance. I never knew a grandmother, and I still don't know anything about my Hill Grandmother, at this writing...Dec 1996.

From stories I'm told she was one of nine children that were orphaned 'young'. Charlotte (Lottie) was sent to live with cousins who worked and treated her as a servant. No proof of this but that is the story. She had two brothers 'Ham' and 'Jade' One or both of them were supposed to have been the reason for Charlotte and her young family coming to Little Rock to live, because she had brothers there...one supposed to have been Mayor at one time. This I have checked out and it is not so, there is a Hamilton Woodard living fairly close to where Charlotte and her husband Enders Stanton Hill lived in Little Rock, but he worked for the Prison System!! The nickname 'Jade' could stand for anything, no trace of him. My cousins probably got the 'Mayor' story confused because I do know that one of my Mother's brothers, George Flanagan was Mayor of Capitol Hill, OK. This was a little suburb of OK. City. I shall go into the Flanagans more at a later time.

From Florida, Montg. Co., NY, Enders with his wife Lottie, and two daughter, Frances Emily 'Frankie' and Sophia moved to Harvard Ill., why I'm not sure. Enders raised prized show horses there for awhile, but I suspect he couldn't make a go of it, for they soon moved to Little Rock, around 1875 or 6 where Charlotte ran a boarding house known as the 'English' House. Here was born,

Lottie,

Raymond Hill and my father, William Kline Hill. Enders was known to have a violent temper and to like liquor more than normal. I remember my Father saying that his Dad would feed the horses before he would feed his kids and that he got many a whipping from his Dad with the horse whip. Raymond turned out to be the town drunk. He and my father got their canvas training from their big sisters (Lot) husband, O.D. Tucker who started out having a Harness and buggy shop but as times changed and canvas was being used, he started carrying tents and tarps and cots etc. There are conflicting stories that O.D. Tucker was the one who sent my father into Mexico to open a canvas shop or that my Father went on his own.

My cousin, Erma tells me that my Dad met my Mom when she was working for her father, O.D. Tucker as a seamstress. They married 23 Nov 1907 in Kansas City, MO where Mother's big sister Bess was living with her new husband, Walter Albright. Why she didn't marry at home, her folks were alive in Norman, OK, I don't know. They went to Torreon, Mexico where Dad had a canvas store. Here their first born, a son, Wm. Kline Hill,Jr. was b and is buried. I have a copy of the burial receipt. Believe that the baby was around two when he died. My Dad was in Mexico during the days of Pancho Villa and I do remember the stories of when Pancho would be in town and in need of new tents or tarps and how he would just come into the store and take what he wanted and then tell Dad, adios!! no pay, nothing. Finally Daddy sent Mother out of Mexico when the fighting got very rough and they were killing the 'gringos' and hanging them on the telephone wires, and he and a friend, called Peg leg, walked out of Mexico, hiding from Panchos men by day and running at night for TX. My Dad went into business, Tent and Awnings, with a man named Jake Jagoe, they had the El Paso Tent and Awning Co. for many years. My brother Maurice Kenneth Hill was born 1916 and I came along in 1924...both of us born in El Paso, TX. When I was around 5 or 6 yrs old, for some reason, my Dad took us to Cuero, TX where he had another canvas store and where he was making hundreds, and hundreds of cotton picking sacks, and then the great Depression hit and I believe he went broke or something but we moved to Houston, TX and he opened another shop and we lived above the store in what was once a lovely home at 2715 Main St. My Dad always made lots of money but people tell me that it was my Mother who managed to hold onto it and kept him from too many schemes.

I hope, in the future to add to these narrations...adding the stories as I remember them.

The book is laid out in typical genealogical fashion....Lineage charts with the Family Group Sheets of the families represented on the Lineage Chart, all by number. I've also made an index so that you could find a surname quickly. You will find that there are many families where brothers married sisters, which makes for duplication of lineages. It was most common for there to be much inter-marrying. Remember people lived in groups and travel wasn't as easy as it is now, so a young man would court a girl that lived at the next farm much easier and besides then the two farms could be joined!!

Also enclosed is a list of some of the abbreviations used on these charts:

b .....born
d.....died
m.....married
1).....first wife/husband
ca.....about/approx.
?.....possible, not proven
bp.....baptisism
prob...probate recs.
d.y....died young a slash between words...bro/..brother of int.....date of intent, unusally to marry lic....license to marry date
NEHBR....New England Historical & Biographical Record...periodical published for many years
NYGBR....New York Genealogical & Biographical Record...periodical published for many years
TAG.....The American Genealogist...periodical published for many years

At the present point in time, I belong to the following Societies, all based on certain requirments of proving ones lineage back to a proven ancestor who fought in a War or was instrumental in public life of building this wonderful country of ours. You and your childrens children have every right to be proud of your heritage and I believe that if they could look at us today, they would be as proud of us as we are of them!! Never, ever do anything that would bring shame to the many surnames listed here.
